PROSPECTUS 2020-21 – PART I

Admissions for PG Diploma Programmes in Regional Languages

Malayalam	Marathi	Odia	Urdu
------------------	----------------	-------------	-------------

The Indian Institute of Mass Communication (IIMC), established under the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting, Government of India in August 1965, is currently one of the premier institutions of its kind in the country providing quality training in journalism and undertaking meaningful research in the field of Media and Mass Communication.

IIMC is Asia's first Institute to have a dedicated Communication Research Department conducting research, analysis and impact assessment studies for various Ministries and Government Departments. The Research focuses primarily on government campaigns, impact analyses, feedback etc., providing quality inputs for strategizing government campaigns and communication programmes for their effective and wider reach.

IIMC is the Training Academy of Indian Information Service (IIS) Officers. In addition, the Institute successfully conducts many short-term courses on media management and public relations for officials of various departments of Government of India and the Armed Forces. It also runs an international programme – biannual Diploma Course in Development Journalism for midcareer journalists and media officials from across the developing countries. Overall, IIMC has been at the forefront of preparing trained communication professionals in the country.

Offering industry-oriented courses in Mass Media, IIMC enjoys an excellent placement record for its students. It has been ranked No. 1 Media Institute in the country by both India Today and The Week-Hansa annual ranking of educational institutions in 2018 and 2019.

The Ministry of Human Resources Development, on the recommendation of the University Grants Commission, has granted the Letter of Intent to IIMC for becoming a Deemed to be University under De Novo category over the three years to come. Efforts are being taken on war-footing to achieve the goal of making it to be a Deemed-to-be University.

Headquartered at the full-fledged campus in New Delhi, IIMC has its Regional Campuses at Dhenkanal, Odisha (established in 1993), Aizawl, Mizoram (established in 2011), Amravati, Maharashtra (established in 2011), Jammu, J & K (established in 2012), and Kottayam, Kerala (established in 1995) to provide quality media schooling in the respective regional languages, in addition to various courses offered at the national level. The Regional Campuses have been envisaged to promote national integration by creating a bridge between the regional and the national perspectives in the field of media and mass communication. Admissions for all other courses except the four regional language courses are made on the basis of an All-India Entrance Examination followed by an Interview.

Part II

1. IIMC Dhenkanal – An Overview

The Eastern Indian campus of the IIMC was set up in 1993 in the central Odisha district of Dhenkanal. This was the first centre to be set up outside New Delhi to meet the growing need for learning, training and research in journalism and mass communication in the Eastern part of the country. Located about 80 kilometres south-west of Bhubaneswar, the capital city of Odisha, Dhenkanal is nestled in the rural and tribal hinterland of the state, connected by both rail and road (NH55).

IIMC, Dhenkanal which began its operation in rented accommodation, shifted to its own campus on the lap of Paniohala (meaning ‘hanging water’ in Odia) hills in May 2000, away from the hustle-bustle of the town. The 7.5-acre new campus commands a majestic view surrounded by deep forest, a habitat of a variety of plants, animals and insects.

Initially, it offered only the Post Graduate Diploma in Journalism (English) Course with 40 seats. Later the seats have been increased to 68. In 2001-2002 academic year, a Post Graduate Diploma Course in Odia Journalism was introduced with 15 seats. It was the first time that a language journalism course, besides Hindi, was launched by IIMC. Presently, the Odia Journalism course has 25 seats.

Since 1993, IIMC, Dhenkanal has produced more than 1600 media professionals. Most of them are working in leading mainstream national and international media organizations as well as government establishments and NGOs. Many of them are also working in public relations and advertising domain. Some of them have started media units of their own; some have joined academics

2. Facilities in IIMC Dhenkanal

Library: IIMC Dhenkanal has a rich library with about 7000 collections in media, mass communication, advertising, and public relations. It also includes fiction and non-fiction books. The library has a separate section for Odia books. Besides the newspapers, the Institute also subscribes to all the leading Indian and foreign magazines and prestigious communication journals.

The library has a reading room with seating facilities and computer terminals. The Dhenkanal campus has a library of audiobooks, Jyoti, a centre especially curated for the visually impaired students and scholars.

Every student has to make a library security deposit of Rs. 5,000 which will be refunded at the end of the course after the student produces a No-Due Certificate issued by the Librarian. Every student can borrow two books at a time for one week. If a library book is lost, it has to be replaced or its price, paid. In case the Library refund is not claimed within three years from the completion of the course, the security deposit shall be forfeited.

Publications: IIMC, New Delhi, has a separate Department of Publications. It publishes two quarterly Research Journals – Communicator in English and Sanchar Madhyam in Hindi. The Journals contain scholarly Research Papers and Book Reviews on recent developments and trends in the field of media and communication.

IIMC Dhenkanal regularly publishes monographs, both in English and Odia, on various aspects of media. Till date, it has published 23 monographs with the latest being 'How to Win Over Stress and PTSD', 'JallianwalaBagh 101: Retrospect', 'Media in the time of Covid-19', 'Lokasamparka O Corporate Yogayoga' (Odia), 'Sambadika O Sampadaka Gandhi' (Odia).

The students produce four Lab Journals, IIMC Reporter, including one tabloid and a colour magazine every academic year, both in English and Odia. On every working day, the students produce a two-page newspaper, Daily Reporter, group-wise in both the languages.

Auditorium: Spandan, IIMC Dhenkanal's auditorium with the seating capacity of over 130 people, is the hub of all its conferences, special lectures, different celebrations and cultural programmes. The campus also has an open-air auditorium surrounded by the greens.

Smart Class Room: All the classrooms are digitally enabled with electronic projections, internet and other communication accessories. All the classrooms in the campus are digitally enabled with electronic projections, internet and other communication accessories. The Dhenkanal campus has complete multimedia set up for Mobile Journalism (MOJO), TV, Radio and Newspaper production.

Radio/TV Studio: The campus has a dedicated Television studio for practice and production purpose. Here, every morning, the students produce a 20-minute bulletin, 10 minutes each in English and Odia, with daily updates and original reporting, and it is telecast in the classroom.

An audio studio is in place on the campus as well. It is used for the production of the daily 10-minute bi-lingual bulletin which not only includes updates from across the globe but also original reports and features produced by the students. The audio lab is also used for the production of audiobooks.

The students are provided with hands-on training in Radio and TV production, broadcast reporting from the ground, anchoring during the course. Experts from different media houses visit the campus regularly to facilitate the training process.

The students regularly participate in various programmes in different radio and TV channels. An Internet Radio Station, to be run by the faculty and the students, is expected to be launched soon from IIMC Dhenkanal campus.

Hostel: There are fully furnished hostels for Boys and Girls in the campus that provide twin accommodation per room. It has a full-fledged mess which is supervised by the IIMC administration but managed by a committee of students and members of the faculty. Admitted students should pay a rent of Rs 1300 per month towards hostel fees excluding mess charges.

Gymnasium: An open-air Gymnasium has been set up on the campus with necessary equipment and gadgets. Badminton courts and Table Tennis boards are also available for sporting activities.

Recreation: A dedicated area, Mind Space, is available for the students inside the academic building to relax and engage themselves in creative activities. There are plenty of natural spots on the campus where students can meet up at the end of the day.

The Institute regularly organizes Film Shows for the students and provides an opportunity for the film buffs among them to deliberate on films. The Institute also organizes, Shabdanjali, the literary meet, where students, teachers and members of local literary organizations participate in reading/reciting their work of literature. Debate, elocution, essay writing, poster-making competitions are also organized every year. Students are taken for study trips to nearby locations on a regular basis. They also visit local orphanages and villages and interact with the inmates there.

Free Wi-Fi: The campus provides free Wi-Fi for students both in the academic block as well as the hostel block. It is available 24x7.

3. Scholarships/ Fellowships / Freeship

Every year, two fellowships, one each to EJ and OJ students are given at IIMC, Dhenkanal. The fellowships are awarded in the memory of Dr.Radhakanta Rath and Satya Mohapatra, renowned media personalities of Odisha, for the English and Odia Journalism students respectively. The recipients of the fellowships get a certificate and Rs 10,000 each. A limited number of freeships are provided to the needy and meritorious students by the IIMC authority.

4. Life on the Campus

IIMC Dhenkanal provides a perfect environment for the orientation of the budding journalists and communicators. The Institute aims to prepare the students industry-ready. The campus wears a metropolitan look with the students coming from almost all parts of the country.

The daily schedule is always tight with the day starting at 6 am and extending till late at night for the students. Apart from the theoretical classes, the students prepare daily TV and radio bulletins, participate in presentation sessions on different topics related to media, current affairs, and developmental issues, produce daily newspapers and get hands-on training on the ground. They also go out on the field and cover issues, events, incidents for multimedia platforms. Often they do live reporting from the ground using MOJO kit.

The Institute regularly organizes four to five extension lectures every month where the experts from different fields speak to the students and answer their queries. A variety of special lectures, lecture-demonstrations, institutional visits, national/international seminars, video-link interactions are organized for the students throughout the academic year.

They also work as student-media volunteers to handle the communication needs of different national festivals like Anjali Festival for specially-abled children in Bhubaneswar, NatyaChetana Film Festival in Khurda and Canfest Theatre Festival in Paradeep.

All the courses at IIMC are taught by the in-house faculty of the Institute, supplemented by guest lectures by experts from the industry and academia, specializing in the respective fields.

In the process, the students learn to work in teams in a multi-cultural environment, gains practical experience using media tools and techniques, exposed to the world around them and become aware of the issues a media professional need to engage with.

Seminars, Conferences & Workshops: Seminars, conferences and workshops on various issues related to media and its allied subjects are organised on a regular basis. Seminars on the occasion of IIMC Foundation Day, Odia Journalism Day, National Public Relation Day and lecture in the memory of IIMC Dhenkanal's former regional director Prof KM Srivastava, PR Round Table some of the events which are part of its annual calendar.

Filmi Chakkar, a three-day conference and workshop on films, Photographia, a three-day workshop on photography and visual storytelling, Fact-Checking and Fake News Verification workshop by Google News Initiative, the workshop on Gender and Media by OXFAM, Odisha, are flagship events organized every year in the IIMC Dhenkanal campus.

The Institute also conducts workshops and training for the communication officers of various government and non-government organizations.

Apart from these annual events, seminars, workshops and training programmes are regularly organized at IIMC campus where the students, scholars and media practitioners join and exchange their ideas.

Guest Lectures on Campus: Scholars, practitioners and professionals from different fields regularly visit the campus and interact with the students.

Placements & Internship: Towards the end of the academic session, the Regional Campus of the IIMC Dhenkanal organizes a placement/internship drive, thereby facilitating an interaction between the industry and students. However, it is not obligatory on the part of the IIMC to provide placements to all the candidates.

The students from all the regional campuses also may take part in the central placement drive conducted at the IIMC headquarter in New Delhi.

5. Other important information: Conduct Rules and Guidelines

Attendance: A minimum of 75% attendance is necessary for a student to be eligible to appear in the examination for each semester. Students falling short of the required attendance will not be permitted to sit for the Semester Exams.
